sound. at Fiesta Hall: Pilgrimage From Scattered Points

is the premiere Greater Los Angeles screening of the film Pilgrimage from Scattered Points by Scottish artist Luke Fowler. The film takes as its subject the Scratch Orchestra, a seminal collective of artists and musicians formed in the UK by Cornelius Cardew with Howard Skempton and Michael Parsons in 1968—1969. In addition to the screening, SASSAS is presenting a panel on intersections between radicalism, collectives and experimental art and sound practices and a performance based on the Scratch Orchestra Draft Constitution.
